

December 14th, 2011

Boehmer Box Achieves Chain of Custody Forest Stewardship Council® Certification

On August 5th, 2011, Boehmer Box obtained Chain of Custody Certification with the Forest Stewardship Council®.

The FSC® is an international accreditation widely recognized for the promotion of responsible forest management worldwide. The council grants certified organizations with the authority to apply the FSC® logo on all packaging solutions that conform to the council's standards.

Customers who entrust Boehmer Box with their brand are now presented with the opportunity to display a FSC® logo on all of their qualified materials. In obtaining Chain of Custody Certification, Boehmer Box has thus facilitated the enhancement of their customers' eco-friendly image in the marketplace, and has confirmed support for responsible forest management worldwide.

The mark of responsible forestry